WOMEN FORUM TO CELEBRATE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF CONFEDERATION OF CANADA

8-9 NOVEMBER IN MEXICO CITY

Paris, Washington DC, 14.09.2017, 22:43 Time

USPA NEWS - Women's Forum Mexico #WFMX17 to celebrate 150th anniversary of Canada's Confederation. For its second Mexico edition on Unleash your leadership!, the Women's Forum for the Economy & Society will recognize Canada, Mexico's third largest trading partner. Women's Forum Mexico will be held on 8-9 November 2017 in Mexico City - with a by invitation-only pre-programme on 7 November for Canadian, Mexican and American entrepreneurs and business leaders. 2017 is a big year for all Canadians: it is the 150th anniversary of Confederation. Canada is also proud to be leading the way in promoting gender equality and helping to empower women and girls.

WOMEN'S FORUM 2017 IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO LOOK AT MAJOR TRENDS IN MEXICO

"This is an opportunity to look at major trends and realize an open and culturally dynamic 21st century Mexico. Better leadership must go together with new leadership "" new modes of managing companies and unleashing Mexico's talent, new identities and inspiration for Mexicans as a people and for the country in the region and the world.

This second edition of Women's Forum Mexico will bring together women and men, each an influencer or high potential in his or her field, for forward-looking debates intended to contribute to national renewal, encourage corporate innovation, and support individual leadership development.

Our premise is that women's experience, expertise, and vision are essential for achieving viable social and economic advancements "" so we feature women leaders from Mexico and abroad in dialogue with their men counterparts."

AGENDA FOR THE WOMEN'S FORUM MEXICO

- " Unleash our civic engagement!
- " Diversification: Our no. 1 priority
- " The trends we must take into account for a thriving 21st-century workforce
