- . 1) Syria's unity, independence, territorial integrity, and secular character are fundamental. ""
- . 2) State institutions will remain intact. ""
- . 3) The rights of all Syrians, regardless of ethnicity or religious denomination, must be protected. ""
- . 4) It is imperative to accelerate all diplomatic efforts to end the war. ""

- . 7) Pursuant to the 2012 Geneva Communiqué and U.N. Security Council Resolution 2118, the participants invited the U.N. to convene representatives of the Government of Syria and the Syrian opposition for a political process leading to credible, inclusive, nonsectarian governance, followed by a new constitution and elections. These elections must be administered under U.N. supervision to the satisfaction of the governance and to the highest international standards of transparency and accountability, free and fair, with all Syrians, including the diaspora, eligible to participate. ""
- . 8) This political process will be Syrian led and Syrian owned, and the Syrian people will decide the future of Syria. ""
- . 9) The participants together with the United Nations will explore modalities for, and implementation of, a nationwide ceasefire to be initiated on a date certain and in parallel with this renewed political process. ""

The participants will spend the coming days working to narrow remaining areas of disagreement, and build on areas of agreement. Ministers will reconvene within two weeks to continue these discussions.
