On Thursday, November 19, 2015, the French Institute Alliance Française (FIAF) will present acclaimed Franco-American artist Françoise Gilot with the 2015 Trophée des Arts and Air France-KLM Chairman & CEO Alexandre de Juniac with the 2015 Pilier d'Or at The Plaza hotel in New York.

Attendees of the evening will include IMF Managing Director Christine Lagarde, Boeing Commercial Airplanes President & CEO Raymond L. Conner, NBC News and MSNBC correspondent Olivia Sterns, and New York street artist JonOne.

A special guest of Air France, JonOne has imagined a new creation and completely reworked the accent that characterizes the Air France logo. This unique work of art has been installed on one of Air France's Boeing 777. The aircraft, sporting this exceptional livery, will then fly off for the first time to New York, a legendary and historic route for Air France, and over the world for one year.

The Trophée des Arts distinguishes an artist who exemplifies FIAF's mission of French-American friendship and cross-cultural exchange. It has been bestowed upon French and American artists and cultural icons, including: Charlie Rose, Alain Ducasse, Marc Jacobs, James Ivory, Angélique Kidjo, and Philippe de Montebello. The Pilier d'Or recognizes a leading business figure, diplomat or philanthropist for outstanding contributions to the French-American community.

The French Institute Alliance Française (FIAF) is New York's premiere French cultural and language center. FIAF's mission is to create and offer New Yorkers innovative and unique programs in education and the arts that explore the evolving diversity and richness of French cultures.
