LEO DI CAPRIO DEDICATES HIS OSCAR TO THE CLIMATE CHANGE AND GIVES A TRIBUTE

TO THE INDIGENOUS PEOPLE MOST AFFECTED

Paris, Washington DC, 11.03.2016, 02:13 Time

USPA NEWS - Leonardo Di Caprio has not only won his Oscar for Best Actor for the film "The Revenant" Alejandro Gonzalez Inarritu, but he also enjoys his 2 minutes of short talk under the spotlights to dedicate about climate change and a tribute to the Indigenes who least pollute the Earth.

"There are more tears shed on the earth there is water in the ocean." Said Budha, has another distant era of ours, and careless of the suffering of the Earth by the global warming.------

Also, because Dicaprio was fused with the Earth is dragging in the snow, plunging into icy lakes, feel the total denouement, away from the comforts of Western sawed, but so close to the Indian spirituality of a time movie "The Revenant". But beyond this, the jealous detractors in his activist fighting and criticising him while he is protecting Ouran utan Africa, the Bengal tigers, the protected species of ocean biodiversity threatened in some areas dried up. And what is more his initiation hero of the movie "The Revenant" taught him to fetch it all through his own suffering even if it is played because it was carried out in real conditions of extreme harsh environment. The strength he had to concentrate in this film the plunge into the depths of his soul which to draw such a performance which earned him Oscar this amply.

Al Gore Former President, another notorious activist and expert of global warming, has tweeted a message of congratulations to Leonardo Di Caprio: "Great to see Leonardo DiCaprio receive a well-deserved & way overdue best actor award! And so like Leo to use the stage to help save the climate! "[?] At this point of comfort and abundance, there is no need to earn more money or fame or bigger polluting car or more of hedonism, versus the wise attitude of contributing protecting the Earth. It is a matter of save the future generations from disasters and irresponsible blindness. As a matter of fact, as far as he is concerned, there was a Leonardo Di Caprio, before the Oscar and now there will be a new Leonardo.

HERE ARE THE CONTENTS OF HIS SPEECH WHEN AWARDED HIS TROPHY OSCAR 2016----------

-"The Revenant" was about a man's relationship to the natural world. World that collectively get in 2015 as the hottest year in recorded history. Our production need to move to the Southern tip of this planet just to be able to find snow! CLIMATE CHANGE IS REAL, it is happening right now. Ot is one of the most urgent threat that face our species and we need to work collectively, together and stop procrastinating. We need to support leaders around the world who do not speak for the big polluters and bug corporations but who speak for all humanity for the indigenous people of the world, for the billions and billions of underprivileged people who be most affected by this. Fo our children's children and for those people out there whose voices have been drowned out by tech politics of greed. I than k you all for this amazing award tonight. Let us not take this planet for granted. I do not take tonight for granted. Thank you so very much. "The declared Leonardo Di Caprio, before the prestigious guests at the 88th ceremony of the Oscars." Leo Di Caprio Says at Ceremony of Oscars 2016.
